

One Night Only!

Airmid Theatre Company presents

Celebrating Suffrage: Two Short Comedies

Directed by Tricia McDermott Dramaturgy by Catherine Pressimone

"How the Vote was Won"

by Cicely Hamilton and Christopher St. John (Christabel Marshall) (British, 1909)
imagines the hilarious ramifications of what happens when all women decide to stop working until they get the vote.

"A Chat with Mrs. Chicky"

by Evelyn Glover (British, 1912)
pits a well-educated anti-suffrage woman against a poor charwoman in a comic conversation about women's competency and need to have a voice in government.

Monday October 27, 2008

Pre-Performance Reception - 5:30 pm
Reception Donation $35

FREE ADMISSION for Performance @ 7pm

Limited Seating
Reservations Required
for Performance and/or Reception

CALL 631-704-2888 or Email: Info@airmidtheatre.org

OLD TOWN HALL, BABYLON VILLAGE
47 Main Street, Babylon, NY 11702

As part of this evening
Airmid is Honoring

three New York women who embody the spirit of the Suffragettes and who have taken the next step in their citizenship by serving in elected office.

Join us as we celebrate their accomplishments!

Babylon Town Clerk, CAROL A. QUIRK,
State Assemblywoman, PATRICIA A. EDDINGTON
and
US Senator for New York, HILLARY CLINTON

Special Guest Speaker:
PATRICIA BIANCANELLO
Smithtown Councilwoman & former head of the Smithtown League of Women Voters

Save the Date - December 5th

Mrs. Pecks Pudding

by Eliza Folen

Join us as we partner with Target to launch
Airmid's Family Series: Introducing Classics by Women to Young Audiences.

The Widow Peck wants to make a traditional holiday pudding for her children. But this year she just doesn't see how she can because they are so very poor. So she sends her children out to find someone, anyone, who will be generous enough to provide them with the ingredients for their Christmas pudding. What happens will make you laugh, and might even make you cry.

Sign up for our mailing list to get more details: go to: www.airmidtheatre.org

Presented with additional support from the Babylon Arts Council during the Babylon Chamber of Commerce Night of Shopping.

